

Social and Personal

The reports made at the biennial convention of the National Society of the Colonial Dames of America in Washington this week, shows that there are 5,454 members of the society in the colonial and non-colonial States.

The delegates in Washington numbering one hundred and seventy-five, will be received by President Roosevelt at the White House to-day.

Mrs. Henry F. Le H. Lyster, acting as national historian, said that the most important work of the Virginia Society of Dames was the copying of the journal of House of Burgesses bearing the date of March, 1773-1775.

The Richmond delegates, Mrs. Herbert A. Claiborne, national and State president of the Dames, Mrs. Reginald Gilman, Mrs. William G. Stuart, Mrs. W. T. Robins, were accompanied by Mrs. Russell Robinson, of Nelson county, and Mrs. Charles Washington Coleman, of Williamsburg. They will be home the first of next week.

Chevy Chase Show.

The Chevy Chase Horse Show, which will close to-day, has excited much interest in Virginia and Washington society.

Many Fairfax and Loudoun county Virginians attended the show, at which Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Durand and many of the diplomatic corps appeared. The ladies present are said to be breaking the record in the matter of going gowns.

The Burgess Monument.

The unveiling of the Burgess monument erected by the Washington branch of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, acting in conjunction with the Williamsburg branch, will take place in Williamsburg May 26th at 11 o'clock A. M.

All the members of the Association are most cordially invited to be present on this occasion. Dr. Thomas Nelson Page will present the monument on behalf of the Washington Antiquarians and Mr. Joseph Bryan will receive it in the name of the Virginia Association. The unveiling of this monument will be the first excursion to Williamsburg May 26th, and the many Richmonders who will wish to attend the unveiling will be offered a charming opportunity of so doing.

Saturday, May 14th.

To-day week, May 14th, the annual excursion of the A. P. V. A. to Jamestown will be given.

The trip down the river in May when the trees are in the fresh green of spring will be enchanting. Jamestown Island will be clothed in verdure, and the occasion promises this year more of interest than ever before.

German at Lakeside.

Younger members of Richmond society greatly enjoyed a German given at Lakeside last night.

A series of Germans given there last spring proved so popular that their revival this year has been greeted with enthusiasm. Chaperones of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Blair, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Meade T. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Philip R. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Ford.

Personal Mention.

The glory of May days has revived all sorts of out-of-door sports. Fishing, walking and driving are all pure delights. The country clubs near Richmond offer many attractions and are looking beautiful, surrounded by smooth, green lawns and pretty shrubs and trees.

Friends of Miss Lambeth, who formerly lived in Richmond, but who for some time has made her home in Atlanta, Ga., will hear with pleasure that she is in Virginia for a visit, and will divide her time with her sister, Mrs. Minor Thompson, of Lynchburg, and with relatives in this city.

Miss Lottie Bowyer, of Fincastle, Va., is visiting friends in Richmond, and will go to the World's Fair in St. Louis before her return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Smith, of Roanoke, Va., are the guests of Richmond friends.

The Winchester News says in regard to the election of Dr. H. A. Converse, of Harrodsburg, Va., to the Johns Hopkins Chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity that: The Phi Beta Kappa is the oldest Greek letter society in the United States. It having been founded at William and Mary College in Virginia in 1776. Election to the membership of its chapter at Johns Hopkins University is considered one of the highest academic honors that can be given at the University.

Mrs. James L. Knowles, until recently Miss Laura McGinley, of Pittsburg, Pa., enjoys the distinction of being the best gown bride at Hot Springs, Va.; and that is saying a good deal, for newly married couples have taken to spending the honeymoon at Hot Springs this season.

A recently announced engagement of interest to Virginia people is that of Miss Emily White Harrison, of Philadelphia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Harrison, and Mr. Edward K. Rowland. Both of these young people are connected with old and aristocratic Virginia families.

All the children of the Second Baptist Church Sunday school are requested to attend the exercises incident to the breaking of the ground on the site of the new church at 12:30 o'clock to-day.

LENORE.

BY EDGAR A. POE.

Other selections from Poe, his biographical sketch, autograph and portrait have already appeared in this series.

"Poenia" means "we have sinned." Poena is a Greek word, meaning a song of triumph.

Ah, broken is the golden bowl! the spirit flown forever!
Let the bell toll!—a saintly soul floats on the Stygian river;
And, Guy De Coré, hast thou no tear?—weep now or never more!
See on yon drear and rigid bier low lies thy love, Lenore!
Come! let the burial rite be read—the funeral song be sung!—
An anthem for the queenliest dead that ever died so young—
A dirge for her the dearest dead in that she died so young.

"Wretchedst ye loved her for her wealth and hated her for her pride,
"And when she fell in feeble health, ye blessed her—that she died!
"How shall the ritual, then, be read?—the requiem how be sung
"By you—by yours, the evil eye,—by yours, the slanderous tongue
"That did to death the innocence that died, and died so young?"

Poenia, but have not thou! and let a Sababih song
Go up to God so solemnly the dead may feel no wrong!
The sweet Lenore hath "gone before," with Hope, that flew beside,
Leaving thee wild for the dear child that should have been thy bride—
For her, the fair and demure, that now so lowly lies,
The life upon her yellow hair but not within her eyes—
The life still there, upon her hair—the death upon her eyes.

"Avant! to-night my heart is light. No dirge will I upraise,
"But wait the angel on her flight with a Poena of old days!
"Let no bell toll!—lest her sweet soul, amid its hallowed mirth,
"Should catch the note, as it doth float, up from the damned Earth.
"To friends above, from friends below, the indignant ghost is risen—
"From Hell unto a high estate far up within the Heaven—
"From grief and groan, to a golden throne, beside the King of Heaven."

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day.

DAILY FASHION HINTS.

LADIES' SHIRT-WAIST OR BLOUSE.

No. 6137.—All the adjectives which can be applied to the beautiful are brought into requisition for description of the separate blouse this year. It is so varied in its treatment and so indispensable to every woman that it not only holds its own, but seems to have made new inroads on the good graces of modish women. In this particular style the shoulders are lengthened by the pleats in the shoulder, extending beyond the sleeve seam. These shaped pleats extend to the waist in front and back, and by sloping towards the center add not a little to the lines of the figure.

The front is finished by a panel, under which the closing is effected. This model is one that has never been popular, because of its graceful lines. It is in reality the new Gibson style, and is pretty in the severe tailor made style, with only machine stitching, or will admit of any amount of elaboration. The front panel may be decorated by lace motifs or a round yoke may be outlined by applique. Quite the newest trimming would be of cross-stitch, which may be bought at an Oriental shop or done at home. The mode is suitable to any of the season's fabrics.

Materials required for medium size, three and three-quarters yards, thirty-six inches wide.

Sizes—32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches, bust measure.

On receipt of 10 cents this pattern will be sent to any address. All orders must be directed to THE LITTLE FOLKS PATTERN CO., No. 78 Fifth Avenue, New York. When ordering, please do not fail to mention number and to indicate that this coupon is from The Times-Dispatch.

CHIEF SOON TO BE CHOSEN

Police Commissioners Will Meet in Regular Session June 8th.

MENTION OF SHINBERGER

Some Declare Him Logical Successor—Captain Hulce Is an Applicant.

In less than a month now the Board of Police Commissioners of the city of Richmond will select a chief of police to succeed Major B. F. Howard, whose resignation was offered some months ago, to take effect June 30th.

The next regular meeting of the board will be held on June 8th, and at that time the choice will be made, unless the board should adjourn to a later day in the month.

Up to this time there have been few applications, the position and few men have been urged by their friends. For a time there was some talk of securing the services of some retired army officer, but this idea has now been abandoned. The probability now is that some member of the present force will be selected, though, who he will be is purely a matter of conjecture. There has been some talk of Major Howard's name being brought before the board again, but no authority for such a report has been discovered.

Captain E. P. Hulce, a veteran member of the force, is an applicant for the place. He is now in charge of the Second Police District. Sergeant Kerse, an excellent officer attached to the First District, has been urged, but has made no formal application. Another sergeant mentioned as a suitable man is Sergeant Sowell, whose record as an officer and a disciplinarian is without fault, a man of excellent judgment and executive ability. So far as known he is in no sense a candidate.

Captain J. F. Shinberger, now inspector of police, is looked upon by many as the logical successor to the chief's position. It is believed by many that he was selected as inspector with a view to his elevation to head of the force later. Captain Shinberger is an excellent officer and a courteous and capable gentleman. Many would guess that he will be the next chief, and in that event that Sergeant Sowell or Sergeant Kerse will be made inspector.

The term of one member of the Board of Police Commissioners will expire July 1st, and the Council will have to choose a successor. That one is Commissioner Welsh, of Marshall Ward, who has long served on the board. Two or three well known men are suggested as probable candidates for the commissionership, but as yet none has made a public announcement.

The present Council will choose this commissioner, and it seems probable that Mr. Welsh may succeed himself. He has been on the board a long time, and was largely instrumental in perfecting the very fine patrol system now in operation here.

TRIBUTE TO NOTED JUDGE

Memory of Hon. Charles H. Simonton Honored by State Bench and Bar.

VERY STRONG RESOLUTIONS

Committee Presents Paper Setting Forth the High Qualities of the Jurist.

A meeting of the bar of Richmond and of the State of Virginia was held yesterday afternoon, at which resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Judge Charles H. Simonton were adopted and committees named to present the resolutions to the United States Court of Appeals and the other Federal courts and the State courts next Tuesday at a meeting set apart for this purpose.

The meeting, which was well attended, was called to order by Mr. A. W. Patterson, who briefly stated its purpose. Judge Edmund Waddill, of the United States District Court, was called to the chair, and Messrs. Henry C. Riely and Hunsdon Cary made secretaries.

On the motion of Mr. J. Alston Cabell, the following committee was constituted and selected by the chair to prepare suitable resolutions of respect and eulogy of the dead jurist: J. Alston Cabell, chairman; A. R. Courtney, Jackson Guy, Charles V. Meredith, Frank W. Christian, Charles T. O'Ferrall, John Howard, Jr., Willis B. Smith, Hugh R. Page, James Lewis Anderson, Henry Taylor, Jr., Hill Montague, J. R. V. Daniel and Stuart Bove.

PAID HIGH TRIBUTES. Brief informal addresses in the nature of tributes to Judge Simonton were made by Judge A. L. Holladay and Mr. William Fliegenheimer. The committee reported the following resolutions, which were adopted:

"Whereas, the members of the bench and bar of the State of Virginia, called together by the death of the Honorable Charles H. Simonton, desire to express a deep sense of their loss, and to put upon record some testimonial of regard for and appreciation of this eminent judge and Christian gentleman; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we cherish and shall ever retain, a grateful remembrance of the exalted worth of the Honorable Charles H. Simonton, who presided with so much distinction for more than ten years, over this, the Fourth Judicial Circuit of the United States of America. While filling this high office no man ever commanded to a greater extent the affectionate confidence and esteem of his members of the bar, over which he presided. His untiring industry, his profound learning, his pure character, his timelessness life and his inflexible devotion to duty left nothing to be supplied by a variety of style and strong English, and to inspire and confirm confidence and respect, while his uniform gentleness, and his unstudied simplicity won for him the love and affection of the people as well as the bar.

BEAR TESTIMONY. "One hundred volumes of the Federal Reporter bear valuable testimony of his judicial learning and ripe sense of equity. With a command of strong English, and a thought of display, but aimed exclusively to convey his meaning with clearness and force. While ever ready to correct an error, and with as little pride of opinion as falls to the lot of any man, no influence could ever have shaken his fearless determination to declare and uphold that which was just and right, or have induced him to recant a judgment in which he believed he had established his right or defended a principle. His judicial decisions must ever remain imperishable monuments of his fame.

"He was a citizen of South Carolina, and his home was in the city of Charleston, yet his visits to this State were so frequent, he was so often in our midst, he had so entered into our social life, as well as our professional life, and had so endeared himself to us as a friend as well as a judge, that the intelligence of his death could not fail to awaken in us a sense of individual loss and personal sorrow.

"Resolved, That the secretaries of this meeting forward a copy of these proceedings to the family of the deceased, with the assurance of our deep sympathy in their bereavement.

"Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting appoint committees to communicate these proceedings to the memorial meeting to be held in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in the city of Richmond, and also to the United States Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, and ask to have them entered on their records."

"JAMES ALSTON CABELL, Chairman."

EXERCISES NEXT TUESDAY.

The following committee of the bar of Virginia was named to present the resolutions to the Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States: Messrs. James Alston Cabell, Henry R. Pollard, Wyndham R. Meredith, Eugene C. Massie, Henry T. Wiekham, John A. Lamb, George I. Wise, Royal E. Bell, John Pickett, Conway R. Sands, W. P. Deshaussure, George Bryan, Ernest M. Long, George Hanson,

L. L. Lewis, A. L. Holladay, A. W. Patterson, W. J. Leake, John A. Coker, R. L. Montague, S. S. P. Patterson, George L. Christian, B. B. Munford, William Ellison, George Wayne Anderson, William A. Anderson, James E. Cannon and D. C. O'Flaherty.

Mr. Hill Carter was designated to present the resolutions to the United States Circuit and District Courts, and Major Charles S. Stringfellow to present them to the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, and Messrs. Henry A. Atkinson, E. B. Thompson, W. D. Cardwell and William Fliegenheimer to the other city courts.

Next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock is the hour fixed for the presentation of memorials and the making of addresses before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals from the bars of Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina and South Carolina, which are embraced in the circuit.

TO INVESTIGATE ALABAMA LYNCHINGS

Governor Cunningham Takes Action Concerning Two Recent Lynchings.

(By Associated Press.)
MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 6.—Two lynchings have occurred in Alabama within the past thirty days, one for alleged criminal assault, and the other for an alleged assassination of a white man by a negro. Acting Governor Cunningham to-day took the decided action to have these lynchings investigated and the guilty punished.

He addressed letters to Circuit Judges W. S. Anderson and T. Scott Sayre, calling their attention to the lynchings and urging them to hold special terms of their respective courts to bring lynchings to justice. He gave an interview in which he said:

"I believe that prompt trial by courts of all rapists and assassins and an earnest and prompt effort to bring lynchings to justice will not only make the law a terror to criminals, but also those who disregard it by substituting lynchings for courts of justice."
